

My greatest fear;

Dying before you two are ready for me to die.
If it weren't for the two of you God knows what my life would be today. I live for the two of you.

My greatest fear;

Anything happening to either one of you.
I would die, my world would end, my heart
would break, I would be nothing. I pray that God and all the powers that be protect you from harm. Everyday I ask for this as often as I can.

My greatest fear;

Not preparing you for life. Everyday is a learning day. Make it so.

Love,
Mom
