My father:

You're both doing well. I'm, you have truly made an effort at improving your attitude over the past few days. I hope you see how great your life can be given all of your positive attributes. You have cost much to open if you continue to perform at the level you've been performing. Your coping is going well. Well see how the project ends / continues. I think I should also write your journal, your parents is going great. You are advancing quite nicely. I hope your proud.

Barbra, always has proven to be a real task. Unless I nude you, or take away privileges you just don't motivate yourself to finish things. You need to be self motivated. Barbra, you need to do what needs doing and learn to follow through. Don't "half swing" at life - you'll never get to work. I love you guys
